Education

Diploma of Arts Management

Nanyang Academy of Fine Arts 2020 - 2023

Through the Arts Management Diploma at NAFA, Cody gained a solid foundation in arts administration, entrepreneurship, and business strategies tailored for the arts sector. He developed essential skills in project management, budgeting, and marketing, complemented by hands-on experience in event management and stakeholder engagement. This program has prepared him to effectively navigate and innovate within the dynamic landscape of the arts.

O Levels

North Vista Secondary School 2013 - 2019

Cody completed his O Levels, where he developed a strong academic foundation in key subjects, enhancing his critical thinking and analytical skills.

Experience

Social Media Marketing

Foragers 2023 - 2024

At Foragers, Cody plans, creates, and captures engaging social media content to enhance brand visibility. He heads down to the managed restaurants—Carrotsticks, Miznon, and North Miznon—to strategize daily content that highlights the ambiance and cuisine. His photography, and curating of posts not only showcases the culinary experience but also effectively attracts customers through visually compelling social media content.

Studio Operations Coordinator

One Click Studios 2022 - 2024

Cody oversees daily studio operations, delivering exceptional customer service and fostering an inviting environment for clients. With expertise in camera operation and advanced proficiency in photo editing using Photoshop, he ensures the highest quality of visual content. Additionally, Cody spearheads content creation for social media, strategically enhancing the studio's online presence and driving customer engagement.

Operations and Marketing Internship

Visual Arts Centre 2023 (JAN - JUL)

At the Visual Arts Centre, Cody oversees studio operations, ensuring a seamless and productive environment for both staff and clients. He creates compelling social media content through video editing and graphic design, effectively promoting the centre's offerings. In addition to managing sales of art classes and event spaces, Cody plays an active role in event planning and art instruction, contributing to a vibrant and engaging artistic community.
